

Press Release

Recognition for Eight Departments At Actons - Legal500 2006

Once again, Actons' expertise has been recognised by the Legal 500 - The Clients' Guide To The Legal Profession. This independent guide researches firms on their ability and reputation as well as speaking to peers and clients for an unbiased view of the marketplace.

The firm was ranked in no less than eight key sectors -

- Insolvency,
- Company Commercial,
- Commercial Litigation,
- Debt Recovery,
- Personal Injury (Claimant),
- Commercial Property,
- Employment,
- Personal Tax, Trusts & Probate

It had been an excellent year for Actons' Insolvency team who are ranked as the only firm in the top tier for the entire East Midlands region.

Director John Britten said: - "The results this year are testimony to the expertise and dedication the Firm has to offer. Existing rankings have been maintained and this year we are delighted that two additional departments, Employment Law and Personal Tax, Trusts and Probate have been recognised by the publication. The reputation the firm has built up within the East Midlands is reflected in the level of work that is undertaken - we will continue to build upon this success".

The Legal 500 is an independent Guide and the rankings reflect the firm's position as one of the most respected independent practices in the East Midlands

Ends: September 2006
