Nottingham Based Law Firm Recognises Quality Within

Actons' Solicitors has promoted Corporate & Commercial Solicitor, Peter Flowerday, to become an Associate of this leading East Midlands' firm. Since joining Actons in 2004, Peter has been a key contributor, demonstrating excellent ability in a range of acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures and general commercial work. His down to earth and practical approach has enabled him to build trusting relationships with his clients as he strives to help them to develop and grow their businesses.

Director Adrian Forster, Head of Actons' Commercial Department, commented:

"Peter's promotion is in recognition of the skills and qualities that he brings to the Practice. I am delighted with the progress that he has made since joining Actons. He strengthens our reputation as leaders in the East Midlands owner-managed business sector of the market. Peter has shown himself to be a valuable member of the team, working hard to exceed our client's expectations."
