Personal Injury Team Build On Success

Actons highly regarded Personal Injury team has continued to build on its success by being appointed to the Nottingham City Council's panel for Insurance Litigation work. The firm will now be one of three firms acting on behalf on the Council.

Actons Personal Injury team is highly regarded throughout the East Midlands with recommendations from The Legal500 and legal Experts. The team handles all aspects of personal Injury work including road traffic accidents, accidents in the work place and public liability claims.

Director Peter Seymour said "We are delighted to have received this endorsement of the capability of the department in handling local authority defence work and look forward to continuing our long standing relationship with Nottingham City council."
