

Press Release

(Peter Seymour, Simon Dakin & Amanda Gordon)

Actons develops quality within

Nottingham Law Firm Actons has recognised quality within and promoted two commercial Solicitors to Director, strengthening its team across the East Midlands. The promotion of Amanda Gordon and Simon Dakin brings the number of Directors to 13 and reflects Actons continued commitment to growth.

Commercial Property Solicitor Amanda Gordon joined Actons in 1998 after several years of experience with a large firm in the North-west of England. Since then she has continued to expand her expertise in a wide range of commercial property related matters. Amanda particularly enjoys working with clients with extensive property portfolios where an ongoing working relationship can be established.

Corporate & Commercial solicitor Simon Dakin joined Actons in 2003 and has been a key contributor, demonstrating excellent ability in a range of acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures and general commercial work. Simon offers a practical approach that has enabled him to develop relationships based on mutual trust and confidence with clients across the East Midlands.

Chairman Peter Seymour says: "Both Amanda and Simon are excellent lawyers who have built up strong client relationships enabling them to contribute fully in the success of the firm. Their appointments underline the strength of our Commercial departments and our on-going commitment to provide a top quality service for our clients".
