

Press Release

Peter Seymour & Richard Leman

All Change at the Top for Actons Solicitors

Actons are pleased to announce that Peter Seymour has been elected Chairman to succeed Richard Leman, who steps down after 27 years in this role.

Richard joined the firm in 1963 and became Senior Partner (as it then was) in 1980. Richard has been described as “dynamic and charismatic” by staff and clients alike and has led Actons through periods of great change, growth and success. Richard will remain in a fee-earning role, continuing to act on behalf of his many clients.

Peter joined Actons in 1977 and became a Partner in 1981. He has witnessed the firm grow from a 4 Partner Practice to currently 13 Directors and some 80 staff.

Peter says: “Richard will be a difficult act to follow. I am however fortunate to have such a talented and supportive team of fellow Directors who, together with our excellent staff, will take us into a new era and enable the firm to continue to go from strength to strength.”
